

SPORTING LIFE Whether you're a golf-aholic who simply cannot get enough of the game or a novice honing your skills to unleash on the unsuspecting, you can stimulate your golf game while preparing for this spring's playing season in the comfort of your home with AboutGolf's Indoor Golf Simulator. AboutGolf has the best in graphics, design, plug-and-play ease, and of course—the ultimate in golf course layouts and software. It is simply more accurate and advanced than other simulators on the market, and it gives a feel of play seamless to the real deal.

AboutGolf professionals will work with architects and homeowners to customize the fit—all you need to provide is a space roughly 30 by 15 feet dedicated to your simulator and optional lounge space. What you get is your own window into golf heaven that comes standard with 25 courses including Pebble Beach and Spy Glass Hill as well as reproductions of classic courses such as Harbor Town at Hilton Head, South Carolina. AboutGolf also includes "the most imaginative 18 holes in golf" from the mind of renowned artist Loyal H. Chapman. These challenging adventures take you on a golfing journey through caverns, across New York City's skyline, and deep down into the Grand Canyon.

The base price starts at $40,000. For more information about the AboutGolf Indoor Golf Simulator please visit Aboutgolf.com or call 419.868.6091 ext. 46. —JC

ON THE RADAR When you walk into a golf shop or browse online, it's easy to become overwhelmed by the wide spectrum of golfing apparel... even in the luxury market.

Too bad the shops don't offer a scorecard rating clothing and equipment for you. But no need... one of the top golfing clothiers, Fairway & Greene provides golfers with some of the highest quality shirts while retaining the traditional bounds of golf apparel and respecting the historic tradition of the game—and all at a reasonable price. Fairway & Greene asks, "Why pay $125 for an Italian spun yarn golf shirt when you can get the same style, quality, and feel for $85 from an American brand?" You don't have to! For more information about Fairway & Greene apparel please visit fairwayandgreene.com or call 800.926.8010. —JC
